

BUFFALO PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA
PRESS RELEASE: For Immediate Release
November 8, 2010

Jennifer L. Smith
Media & Community Relations
716-242-7819
jsmith@bpo.org

Philip Rothman, Composer and Buffalo Native Previews "Arc of Visibility" at the Downtown Central Library

November 8, 2010: Buffalo, NY- Composer and Buffalo native Philip Rothman will preview the performance of his "Arc of Visibility" at the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra Gershwin Festival on November 19 & 20 in a noontime presentation at the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library on November 17. The presentation is free and open to the public.

Gershwin Festival - Classics

Concert Sponsor: Superior Group

Fri Nov 19, 2010 10:30 am

Sat Nov 20, 2010 8 pm

JoAnn Falletta, conductor

Orion Weiss, piano

Philip Rothman: Arc of Visibility

Gershwin: Concerto in F

Gershwin: Second Rhapsody

Schuman: New England Triptych

Musically Speaking with JoAnn Falletta, Orion Weiss and Philip Rothman is a pre-concert talk free to ticket holders sponsored by Uniland, is held one hour before Saturday and Sunday performances on the M&T Bank Classics Series.

###

The Grammy Award Winning Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra celebrates its 75th Anniversary Season in 2010-2011. Since 1940, the Orchestra's permanent home has been Kleinhans Music Hall, a National Historic Site with an international reputation as one of the finest concert halls in the United States. For more information please visit www.bpo.org.

Philip Rothman, composer

Rothman, born in Buffalo and raised in WNY, is a Juilliard School graduate whose compositions have been performed by the Utah Symphony, Indianapolis Symphony, North Carolina Symphony, the United States Military Academy Band, and many other ensembles. His music has been heard at Carnegie Hall and the Lincoln Center, on the radio through the NPR program "Performance Today," and in the McGraw Hill Companies' Young Artists Showcase. He has been awarded four ASCAP Foundation Morton Gould Young Composer Awards, a Meet the Composer Fund grant, and the Brian M. Israel Prize, among other honors. For more information please visit <http://www.philiprothman.com/>